

BoxInterferences@uspto.gov
Telephone: 571-272-4683

Paper 456
ENTERED: 12 October 2012

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
PATENT TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

Patent Interference No. 105,754 (RT)

COMMONWEALTH SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH ORGANISATION and Bayer BioScience N.V.
(11/364,183),
Junior Party,

v.

CARNEGIE INSTITUTION OF WASHINGTON
and the University of Massachusetts
(6,506,559; 7,538,095 & 7,622,633),
Senior Party.

Before: RICHARD E. SCHAFER, RICHARD TORCZON and SALLY G.
LANE, Administrative Patent Judges.

TORCZON, Administrative Patent Judge.

JUDGMENT
Bd.R. 127

The accompanying decision¹ on motions makes this interference ripe for judgment.

Judgment is entered against the junior party (CSIRO) for the subject matter of count 1,² the sole count; and

Claims 52-67 and 69-106 of CSIRO's involved 11/364,183 application are FINALLY REFUSED.³

A copy of this judgment will be entered in the administrative records of the involved patents and the involved application.

cc:

TODD R. WALTERS and CHRISTOPHER L. NORTH, Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC, of Alexandria, Virginia, for junior party.

TODD B. BUCK and W. JACKSON MATNEY, JR., Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, of Washington, D.C., for senior party.

¹ Paper 453.

² Paper 454.

³ 35 U.S.C. 135(a).